It's more fun with Maisy

By Lucy Cousins

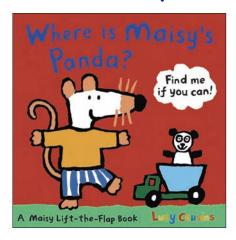

Twenty years ago, Walker published the first book about the helpful little mouse. Today, there are 28 million Maisy books worldwide. Maisy has her own TV show and a vast selection of products – from duvets to dinner plates – to her name! In 2010, Walker will celebrate 20 years of Maisy with a year long consumer marketing and PR campaign.

- Visit Maisy's website www.maisyfun.com for activities, games, newsletters, and much more.
- For stickers, activity sheets and point of sale material, email sean.moss@walker.co.uk
- For Maisy costume enquiries, email rebecca.harper@walker.co.uk

This is a sparkling series of three novelty board books. Compact enough for toddlers to hold, with flaps large enough for small hands to lift, these fun interactive books are perfect for the youngest Maisy readers.

31 Ways to Change the World

By We Are What We Do

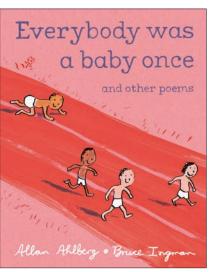

This is the children's sequel to Change the World for a Fiver, the bestseller produced by the global social change movement, We Are What We Do. Their maxim is: small actions x lots of people = big change. It's not rocket science but it does work! The thirty plus actions in this book will be fun and easy for children to do but will add up to making a big difference and giving them the responsibility for changing the world, one bit at a time.

Jake's Cave

By Lou Kuenzler Illustrated by Nick Maland

Jake is excited as he sets off with Uncle Paul and his little sister Pip for the beach. There's a big dark cave there where he can be a brave knight and save Princess Pip from the scary dragon. But the cave is much smaller than Jake remembers. He's too big even to fit inside it. Unless he uses his imagination...

The Boy Who Climbed into the Moon

By David Almond Illustrated by Polly Dunbar

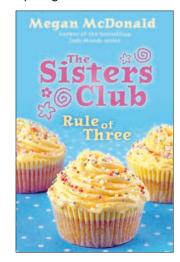

A magnificent tale of crackpot notions and sky-high courage from acclaimed author and master of magical realism, David Almond. Paul believes the moon is not the moon but is a great hole in the sky. How on earth (or not on earth) is he going to find out whether he's a crackpot or a genius? With a few equally crackpot (or genius) helpers and a very long ladder, that's how.
